The Central District of California

encompasses seven counties; Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino, stretching from the coast of California eastward to the Nevada and Arizona borders.

The Central District of California is comprised of three divisions: Western, Southern, and Eastern Divisions.

The Central District of California is the same size of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Hawaii, Connecticut, Delaware, and Rhode Island combined."

RACE/ETHNICITY

San Luis Obispo County was once known to be the biggest oil-producing area in the world and hosting one of the largest military populations during World War II (inhabiting over 100,000 military personnel). Today, it is the 3rd largest producer of wine in California.

Los Angeles County has 75 miles of coastline and brings in 40.3 Million visitors a year. It is the only city in North America to have hosted the Summer Olympics twice. Downtown LA is the largest government center outside of Washington, D.C.. Los Angeles has the only remaining wooden lighthouse in the state (located in San Pedro's Fermin Park) and the largest historical theater district on the National Register of Historic Places (located Downtown on Broadway). In addition, with more than 87,000 jobs in the fashion industry, LA County has surpassed New York's fashion district workforce.

San Bernardino County had its area cut two times since its creation (in 1872 to form Inyo County and 1893 to form Riverside County), and continues to remain the largest county in the United States today.

Santa Barbara County has 110 miles of beaches, and is referred to as the "American Riviera" because its geography and similar climate to that of the French and Italian Rivas. It also produces commodities such as, strawberries, broccoli, wine and grapes, totaling over $544.5 million in revenue.

Ventura County is located on California's Pacific coast. It is often referred to as the Gold Coast, and has a reputation of being one of the safest populated places in the country. It is also known as the "Tech Coast Area" for telecommunications, healthcare, development, and biotech corporations.

Orange County ranks as the third most populous county in the State of California. Its economy continues to out-perform local surrounding counties, the state and national economies (in annual percentage growth), and in fact, ranks higher (in absolute growth rate dollars) than the economies of the majority of the world's countries.

Riverside County was founded by Judge John Wesley North, and is one of the fastest-growing counties in the past fifty years. At the time of Riverside County's formation, Riverside city was the wealthiest city per capita.
